SCRIBNER'S MAGAZINE
A Red-Letter Year for 1897.

The entire novelty of many of the plans for 1897 is noticeable. For instance, the series devoted to

"LONDON AS SEEN BY CHARLES DANA GIBSON."

Mr. Gibson has not before appeared as a writer. He visited London last summer for Scribner's Magazine, for the purpose of depicting with pen and pencil those scenes and types which the huge metropolis presents in endless variety.

Of like novelty is the first considerable NOVEL BY RICHARD HARDING DAVIS.

"Soldiers of Fortune." The hero is one of the most vigorous men that Mr. Davis has drawn. Illustrated by G. D. Gibson.

"THE CONDUCT OF GREAT BUSINESSES."

A beautifully illustrated series of articles of which the following are already completed:

"The Management of a Great Hotel."

"The Working of the Bank."

"A Great Manufactory."

"UNDERGRADUATE LIFE IN AMERICAN COLLEGES."

A series of articles touching upon the life of our older universities as represented by the doings of the students themselves.

Judge Henry E. Howland, writes on "Undergraduate Life at Yale."

Mr. James Alexander on "Princeton," and Robert Grant and Edward S. Martin on "Harvard."

"JAPAN AND CHINA SINCE THE WAR" will be a most interesting group of articles richly illustrated.

"THE UNQUIET SEX."

Under the title of "The Unquiet Sex," Mrs. Helen Watters Moody will write a series of articles—"Woman and Reform," "The College-Bred Woman," "Woman's Clubs," and "The Case of Maria" (a paper on domestic service).

W. D. HOWELLS' "STORY OF A PLAY."

In this Mr. Howells gives us the best novel he has ever produced in his delightful vein of light comedy.

GEORGE W. CABLE.

In addition to the fiction enumerated there will be a series of four short stories by George W. Cable, the only ones he has written for many years.

HOW TO TRAVEL WISELY

with a minimum of wear and tear must be regarded as an art little understood.

MR. LEWIS MORRIS DINGES, in two articles, will offer a variety of useful suggestions and data on "OCEAN AND LAND TRAVEL." This will be happily rounded out by an article from MR. RICHARD HARDING DAVIS on "TRAVELERS' ONE MONTH: Their Ways and Methods." The illustrations by American and foreign artists will be highly pertinent.

It is impossible in a small space to even mention the many attractive features for 1897. A beautiful illustrated booklet has been prepared, which will be sent, postage paid, on request.

Scribner's Magazine $3.00 a Year, 25 cents a copy.
